

Social Media Award!!

IUPS calls young physiologists to apply for the “IUPS Social Media Award”
on the occasion of FAOPS 2023.

Become an ambassador of physiology and write to your friends and fellows a series of posts (in English, preferably with photos) on any of the social media (Facebook, TikTok, X or similar)!

Report about the conference, science and presentations that impressed you and explain why attendance of such a congress is rewarding, and why physiology is fun (and/ or anything similar).

- Prize money amounts to $ 500
- Teams or single persons can apply.
- Write and share your posts during the congress or shortly afterwards.
- Apply informally until Nov. 25th by sending in a short report (texts / photos / account).
- to Prof. Y. Kubo, 2nd Vice-president of IUPS (ykubo@nips.ac.jp)

A team of jurors from FAOPS and IUPS will evaluate the applications and select the winner(s).

It is expected that the awarded posts can be further distributed via the IUPS website and IUPS social media channels.
